Synopsis:

Working as the escapee guinea pig in high security prisons, Ray Breslin (Stallone) is the world's foremost authority on structural security.

When Breslin is enlisted by the CIA to test a top secret high-risk prison, he soon realises that the plan has gone awry when he is drugged and incarcerated in a master prison not only stocked up with the world's most dangerous men, but also designed to be escape proof thanks to his years of research.

With no hope of escape, Breslin finds himself at the mercy of the other inmates, brutal staff and a corrupt prison warden (Caviezel) driven to bury him forever. Breslin's only seeming chance is to hook up with the dangerous and highly unpredictable political detainee Rottmayer (Schwarzenegger) in order to put what could be his final ESCAPE PLAN into action.

We like it because:

Arnie and Sly are locked-up in a maximum security facility of hard nuts presided over by a deliciously psychotic warden and the only way they know to get out is to quip hard and hit harder.

Have we died and gone to action blockbuster heaven? We'd pinch ourselves but the dream of two action icons sharing a screen straining to contain their star presence is too good to ruin!

Vastly enjoyable, surprisingly intriguing and a riot of fun, it's clear both leads are having a ball and bringing their 'A game' with plenty of flashes of their best ever roles propelling a twisty juggernaut of thrillingly visceral whoop ass.
