We like it because:

The first event after WrestleMania is always a big one. The WWE landscape looks totally different, with a new champion, new rivalries, and new stakes for WWE's top Superstars!

Extreme Rules is also the one show each year when WWE throws the rulebook out of the window completely, coming up with a whole host of inventive (but no less brutal) ways for the Superstars to prove their superiority and put grudges to rest – and they never disappoint in delivering high-octane, hard-hitting action!

Among the top matches from this event, Seth Rollins defends his WWE Championship against 'The Viper' Randy Orton in a blistering steel cage match, while John Cena proves once again why he's this generation's top Superstar, battling the 'Bulgarian Brute' Rusev in a devastating chain match. Elsewhere, Roman Reigns has to overcome the giant roadblock that is The Big Show in his journey back to the top of WWE!
