Synopsis:

After being sent on a mission to find a mythical device with time-traveling powers, Chinese warrior He Ying (Yen) is trapped under an avalanche and frozen. Four-hundred years later he awakes in modern-day Hong Kong, where he's about to discover a lot's changed over four centuries...

Not only that, but he's also being pursued by enemies from both the past and present. Can Ying and his new nightclub hostess friend May (Wang) evade their capture? Or is it leading to a climatic showdown 400 years in the making?

We like it because:

Starring two of Asian cinema's biggest names and featuring tons of special effects, Iceman is a martial arts event movie that opens with an unforgettable sequence that fuses high-wire stunt work with eye-popping CGI that's just a taster of all the action yet to come.

Starring Chinese comedy heavyweight Baoqiang Wang and the indestructible Donnie Yen, the comedic sparring is just as brilliant as the lightning-quick kung fu!

An unrelenting piece of epic Asian cinema - Iceman is an absolute must-see.
