

HARRISON FORD 5 FILM COLLECTION

Available on DVD & Blu-ray™ from 2nd November Includes: Firewall, 42, Presumed Innocent, Frantic and The Fugitive

On November 2nd 2015, Warner Bros. Home Entertainment (WBHE) will release the Harrison Ford 5 Film Collection, three of which are brand new to Blu-ray.

ABOUT THE FILMS

42 (2013)

Written and directed by Brian Helgeland (Legend, LA Confidential) this is the inspiring true story of the man who broke the Major League baseball colour barrier, Jackie Robinson, with Ford starring as the man who signed him, Branch Rickey.

Firewall (2006)

Ford proved he still had what it takes in the action man genre in this dazzling techno-thriller, starring as a security specialist forced to rob a bank after his family is taken hostage by the dastardly Paul Bettany.

Frantic (1988)

Directed by Roman Polanski, this superb thriller, a forerunner to the Liam Neeson Taken films, sees Harrison Ford as a doctor whose wife disappears from their hotel room during a trip to Paris. What follows is a nightmarish journey into the underbelly of the city as Ford attempts to find out what has happened to her.

Presumed Innocent (1990)

A sensational nail-biting whodunnit right up to the final scene, this box office smash was based on the bestselling Scott Turow novel, and directed by the great Alan J Pakula (Klute). Ford is a DA who is put in charge of the investigation of his lover's murder – and finds himself in the frame for the killing. When the film was released it became the 'don't reveal the ending' hit of the year.

The Fugitive (1993)

Cementing Ford's reputation as an unstoppable box office force not just in the 1980s but through the 90s as well, this terrific, Oscar[®]-winning thriller, directed by Andrew Davis, was based on the popular TV series, about a doctor, Richard Kimble, who goes on the run after being accused of murdering his wife. Only he knows the truth, and only he can bring his wife's killer to justice – provided lawman Tommy Lee Jones (who won an Oscar[®] for his performance) doesn't catch him.
