

LET THERE BE LIGHT

LET THERE BE LIGHT is released in selected cinemas on Good Friday, 19 April, from 4DIGITAL MEDIA

Fast Sell:

Kevin Sorbo stars in, and directs, this life-affirming and inspirational Christian drama, a box office hit about an atheist who finds God after a near-death experience.

Synopsis:

For all his far-reaching fame, Sol Harkens, the world's most famous atheist, is a lonely soul and a lousy part-time dad. After a near death experience challenges his simplest assumptions about this world, Sol finds his purpose and re-imagines his life, in a film that will make you laugh and cry and want to stand up and cheer.

We like it because:

Already a box office hit in the US, the feature directing debut from actor Kevin Sorbo, and produced by top Fox TV host Sean Hannity, LET THERE BE LIGHT is a feelgood Christian drama from the recently established Lighthouse Alliance, part of 4Digital Media.

Working in collaboration with Kingsway Trust, a charity specialist distributor to the UK Christian market, Lighthouse Alliance aims is to bring the very best faith-based films to the UK's often-neglected UK's Christian audience, which have included the DVD release of the smash hit God's Not Dead: A Light in Darkness, and last year saw the successful theatrical release of the hugely popular I Can Only Imagine.

Part of an exciting release schedule for 2019, the latest title, LET THERE BE LIGHT, sees Hercules star Sorbo in the lead role as an atheist who rethinks his
